Dated Bangalore, 30th August 1890. 1st Sept.

SIR,

In reply to your letter No. 6592/263 dated the 20th August 1090, regarding the supply of and payment for opium from Indore, I am directed to say that to pay the cost of this drug into the Rendrita Treasury at Bangalore for remittance to Indore would merely be an evasion of the order forbidding the Darbar the use of Public Service Remittance Transfer Receipts.

2. Opium supplied by the Indore Agency is usually paid for by Hundis or drafts on local banks or bankers, and I am to suggest the expediency of the Darbar obtaining a draft from the Madras Bank here on the Bank of Bombay at Indore. The cost of commission on such a draft will probably not be more than one half per cent, and as a money order is limited to 600 rupees, the above seems the simplest and safest way of sending money ~~to~~ to Sudore.

Sir,
